- Helps maintain cholesterol within normal ranges*
- Encourages mucosal immunity*
- Helps to raise GLP-1 and support blood sugar and weight management*
- Supports healthy circulation*
- Helps to rid the body of free radicals*

Curcumin, found in the spice turmeric, is your go-to botanical for healthy aging.* That's why DaVinci® Laboratories formulated Curcumin C3 Complex®, which boasts higher absorption compared to other curcumin supplements.* The enhanced bioavailability is thanks to Bioperine® (Piper nigrum), a form of black pepper that allows curcumin to go right to work supporting your health.* Curcumin C3 Complex® is standardized to yield 95% curcuminoids, so you can reap all of the benefits of curcumin supplementation.* A food item used widely in international cuisine; turmeric is generally recognized as safe (GRAS) and an ideal addition to an overall health program.

Supports Liver Health*

Curcumin C3 Complex® helps defend the liver against free radicals and helps maintain healthy fat content.* Plus, curcumin packs a powerful punch against unwanted substances, helping to remove them from the liver.*

Helps Maintain Blood Sugar Support and Weight Management*

Curcumin's role in weight management and metabolic health involves its ability to support healthy blood sugar and insulin metabolism.* It raises levels of glucagon-like peptide-1 (GLP-1), an intestinal hormone linked to healthy blood sugar and insulin.* Another way in which curcumin supports weight management and an optimal body mass is by reducing fat absorption.* It also alters the gut microbiota in a way that's favorable to weight management.*

Helps Strengthen Cardio Health*

Curcumin supports production of bile as well as enzymes that digest sugars and fats to help maintain blood cholesterol levels within normal ranges.* It also can help keep blood flowing smoothly through the blood vessels.*

Soothes the Digestive Tract*

Curcumin soothes the gut mucosa and helps protect the stomach against excess acid.* Because it supports the gut microbiota, curcumin can come in handy for people who have microbial dysbiosis (imbalance), especially after antibiotics.*

Multi-Talented Botanical*

Curcumin benefits several other areas of health.* For example, due to supporting a healthy inflammatory response, it helps maintain joint comfort.* Curcumin also helps trigger production of B and T cells, important for proper immune system function.*

Curcumin C3 Complex® is recommended for:*

- Cardiovascular and circulatory health*
- Helping to maintain normal blood lipids*
- Staying active as you age*
- Liver and gallbladder support*
- Cleansing the body of unwanted substances*
- Weight management programs that increase GLP-1 levels*
